

Nutritious Soups.

The old style of making soups by slicing vegetables for an hour and bending over a hot fire has been relegated to the "has-beens," and to-day up-to-date people buy the prepared soups, which are unequalled for purity and cost about half as much.

The most famous are, Campbell's condensed Soups, put up in tins—Try a can, each 10 cents. Ox Tail, Tomato, Julianon, Consomme, Chicken, Chicken Gumbo, Mock Turtle.
